If you are interested in learning more about the Goshen College Collection of Art then please check out our website and/or the three other highlights brochures that we offer.

Check out our other brochures to read about these other interesting pieces in the Goshen College Collection of Art.

Erma Martin Yost (Highlights of the Women Artists)
Juanita Yoder (Highlights of the Women Artists)
Naomi Limont (Highlights of the Women Artists)

Raised in North Dakota, Abner Hershberger's paintings and prints draw inspiration from both the natural landscape and the landscape shaped by farming. Long time art faculty and now professor emeritus at Goshen College, Hershberger's work abstracts and enhances the shapes and colors of nature, seeking to lift a spiritual dimension out of fields, grasses, and prairie winds.
Highlights of the Mennonite Artists

The Mennonite Artists consist of all the fantastic pieces created by Mennonites that are a part of the Goshen College Collection of Art. These are just a few of the great pieces that make up the Goshen College Collection of Art.

---

1st Fl Visual Arts Building

Battle Sky
Paul Friesen
Ceramics 1993

Paul Friesen is a ceramist and wood sculptor. His interest in the arts was inspired by the Indian craftsmen he saw as a child of missionary parents in India. Paul Friesen is noted for being both a pastor and an art professor at both Hesston College and Bethel College in Kansas.

* Check out additional section for two other great pieces to be found in the Visual Arts building.

---

2nd Fl Administration Building North Stairwell

Indian Summer
Robert Regier
Painting 1995

Robert Regier is a graphic designer and abstract painter and printmaker. The wide-open prairies and broad skies of the Midwest inspire much of his work. Regier is professor emeritus at Bethel College in Kansas. He is known for his graphic design work with Mennonite Central Committee and the Kauffman Museum in North Newton, Kansas.

---

3rd Fl Wyse Building

Falling & Rising
Sylvia Gross Bubalo
Painting 1986

Petit point needlework is Elizabeth Wenger’s medium of choice. Her colorful figurative abstractions, often inspired by Biblical texts, are influenced by both modern art and the tradition of Mennonite quilts. A major collection of her work resides at the Associate Mennonite Biblical Seminaries in Elkhart, Indiana.

---

4th Fl Administration Building North Stairwell

Sylvia Bubalo was born Sylvia Gross in Bucks County, PA. She attended Goshen College, the Art Institute of Chicago, and the Mennonite Biblical Seminary in Chicago. Bubalo is an accomplished artist in a variety of 2-D media and seeks to infuse much of her work with Biblical references and spiritual vitality.

---

West of Wyse Building on the Central Lawn

Broken Shield
Jon Mishler
Sculpture 1981

John Mishler is an abstract sculptor who works in aluminum, copper, steel, and stainless steel. Many of his works are monumental outdoor sculptures that often incorporate kinetic parts that move with the wind. “Broken Shield” is one of Mishler’s first public sculptures and is inspired by Biblical passages that speak to Jesus’ call for non-violence.

---

1st Fl Umble Center

He Asked for Love
Elizabeth Wegner
Textile 1995

Petit point needlework is Elizabeth Wenger’s medium of choice. Her colorful figurative abstractions, often inspired by Biblical texts, are influenced by both modern art and the tradition of Mennonite quilts. A major collection of her work resides at the Associate Mennonite Biblical Seminaries in Elkhart, Indiana.

---

1st Fl Umble Center

Untitled
Marvin Bartel
Ceramics 1977

Marvin Bartel is a ceramist and ceramic sculptor whose work is inspired by his family and nature. An innovator in technique, Bartel’s Umble Center wall relief incorporates photographic images silkscreened with slip. He was a long time art faculty and now professor emeritus at Goshen College. Bartel is also a well known writer and speaker on Art Education.

* Check out additional section for another great piece that can be found in the Wyse Building.

---

* Check out additional section for two other great pieces to be found in the Visual Arts building.